program would be further implemented in the higher govt. schools in the district.

Janga Reddy – Advisor, In-charge of Nagar Kurnool region & Annapoorna Trust Volunteer spoke about the importance of health and quoting, "Health is Wealth," he continued, 'Health depends on the food which we partake daily. Ragi Malt is a nutritious diet which contains Iron, Proteins, Vitamins, Amino acids, Fibre, Calcium and Potassium. Ragi Malt is easily digestible diet since it contains the Amylase Enzyme & is suggested to all people of all age groups. It majorly reduces the anaemic conditions among the students & thereby their learning ability increases. The calcium content of this diet enriches the strength of our bones, teeth, and joints resulting in better health & metabolism. This is cost effective & also an immunity-boosting food aiding the overall development of children.”

Mrs. Kalpana Bhaskar Goud, Municipal Chairperson appreciated the members of the Trust for providing the children with Morning Nutrition every day and said it is good for the students.

Mrs. G Latha H M, Headmistress of ZPHS Girls school of Nagar Kurnool said since some of the 10th grade students come for special classes early in the morning without having breakfast, most of them are weak and anaemic. She was thankful to Sri Sathya Sai Annapoorna Trust and said this healthy and energy drink would provide the required calcium and iron for these students.

Mrs. N Nirmala – SA Bio Science Teacher at ZPGHS, Nagar Kurnool said how prior to the 1950s, whole grains like raagi (finger millet), brown rice and barley were organically grown and considered a traditional dish until rice became India’s staple food and now, with the dawn of Information and Technology (IT), most individuals stick to a planned diet thus making them prone to also eating instant food. As a result, people are less strong in terms of immunity when compared to olden days. She also explained that finger Millet or Raagi, a cereal widely consumed by the people of south India, is known as a wonder grain for weight loss, rich in calcium & high fibre content. It is the best aid for people suffering from diabetes & a common infant food in south India. She also said, “Babies that are 28 days old are fed ragi porridge (soup or mixture boiled in water) and this aids in easy digestion. This will also strengthen the baby’s bones by providing high calcium and iron to the body. Introducing Raagi malt as a snack or soupy dish in the school children is a very significant and pronounced project handled by Sri Sathya Sai Annapoorna Trust.”
