Onam food kits for 160 needy families

Kannur, Kerala

August 24th - 29th

The Annapoorna team in Kannur, Kerala, on the eve of Onam, has distributed Onam food kits to about 160 needy families. These families belong to bedridden patients, or those suffering from kidney ailments, etc.

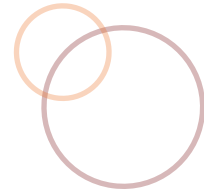

Annapoorna Trust collaborated with Nayonika Eyecare Charitable trust to work with Karnataka Goods Transporters' Association (KGTA) in providing reusable masks for truck drivers. The truck drivers, who, due to constant travelling as their job requires, could be at risk during these times of pandemic. About 7500 reusable masks have been provided so that the truck drivers would be able to protect themselves during their journey. The treasurer and project director of KGTA acknowledged the service in their letter of appreciation.

LIVE FACEBOOK SESSION WITH Sri. ANAND KADALI

A live Facebook session was organized by the Annapoorna team on August 29th. This session, the first of a planned series of monthly webinars to spread awareness of Annapoorna's activities, was hosted by Sri Girish Suryanarayana and featured Sri Anand Kadali, a co-founder and secretary of the Sri Sathya Sai Annapoorna Trust, as the main speaker. The session commenced with an overview of Annapoorna

- from its humble beginnings in 2012, to setting up of the Trust in 2015 with the vision of ameliorating the condition of school children and its rapid growth to cover 500,000 children over 17 states and 3 union territories via its flagship morning nutrition program. The perfect denouement to the evening was Sri Anand Kadali's succinct but articulate recap of his scintillating Annapoorna journey which he humbly attributed to the overflowing grace of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba.
